

The Whole Is Wide
Marissa Nadler

Marissa Nadler " The Whole Is Wide

Capo: 2nd fret

Verse 1:

Bm                    A                    G
Flowers died a long time ago my friend
                 Bm                    A                    G
And they're hanging on the wall with wax and thread
                 Bm                    A                    G
When you were young did you think it would ever end?
                 Bm                    A                    G
When you were young did you think it would ever end?

Verse 2:

Bm                    A                    G
Silvia was a girl that I knew best
                 Bm                    A                    G
And she wore the finest eyelet dress
                 Bm                    A                    G
And she sits in her room painting golden runes
                 Bm                    A                    G
And she sits in her room painting golden runes

Chorus:

Bm    A
Oh what am I to do without a man to see me through?
Bm    A
Oh what am I to do without a man to see me through?
                 G    F#m
I am more than blue, I am violet

Verse 3:

Bm                    A                    G
Layla met a man that she loved best
                 Bm                    A                    G
And he died in a fiery crash
                 Bm    A    G
And the whole is wide, the whole is wide, the whole is wide
                 Bm    A    G

Oh the whole is wide, the whole is wide, the whole is wide

Chorus:

Bm A
Oh what am I to do without a man to see me through?

Bm A
Oh what am I to do without a man to see me through?

G F#m
I am more than blue, I am violet

Bm A G Bm

End.
