IT S A LITTLE TOO LATE
Recorded by Mark Chestnut
Words and music by M. Chestnut, R. Springer and S. Morrisette

[A] Well, early this mornin it dawned on me ---
The kind of man she needed me to [E] be
She made a list and laid it there beside me - on the bed
Now [D] what I should a done keeps a-runnin through my [E] head

CHORUS
(1-Well), (2-Oh!), (3-But),
I [A] shoulda done this and I shoulda done that I shoulda been there and she d never left
I shoulda been [E] hangin onto ev ry word she had to [A] say
But, it s a little too late, she s a little too gone
She s a little too right, I m a little too wrong
Now would [E] be a good time to change, but it s a little too [A] late.

Last night I came home at a quarter to three ---
And to my surprise she wasn t mad at me
I thought she d finally realized not to worry - I d be home
And then I realized this mornin she was gone.

2nd CHORUS

3rd CHORUS

Right now would be the time to change
But It s a little too late.
