

All The Roadrunning
Mark Knopfler

[Intro]

C C G C Am F C C

[Verse]

C C G C
A million miles our vagabond heels
Am F C C
Clocked up beneath the clouds
G G C F
They re counting down to show time
C C F F
When we do it for real with the crowds
G G C F
Air miles are owing but they don t come for free
C C F F
And they don t give you any for pain
C C G C
But if it s all for nothing all the
Am F C C G C Am F C C
roadrunning s been in vain
C C G C
The rimshots come down like cannon fire
Am F C C
And thunder off the wall
G G C F
There s a man in every corner
C C F F
And each one is giving his all
G G C F
This is my fife this is my drum
C C F F
So you never will hear me complain
C C G C
And if it s all for nothing all the
Am F C
roadrunning s been in vain
F G G G F C C C C
All the roadrunning All the roadrunnin
C C G C
Well if you re inclined to go up on the wall
Am F C C
It can only be fast and high
G G C F
And those who don t like the danger
C C F F
Soon find something different to try
G G C F

When there s only a ringin in your ears

C C F F

And an echo down memory lane

C C G C

But if it s all for nothing all the

Am F C

roadrunning s been in vain

[Chorus]

F G G G F C C C

All the roadrunning All the roadrunnin

F G G G F C C C C

All the roadrunning All the roadrunnin

C C G C

The show s packing up I sit and watch

Am F C C

the convoy leaving town

G G C F

There s no pretending I m not a fool,

C C F F

For ridin around and around

G G C F

Like the pictures you keep of your old wall of death

C C F F

You showed me one time on the plane

C C G C

But if it s all for nothing all the

Am F C C G C Am F C C

roadrunning s been in vain

C C G C

A million miles of vagabond sky

Am F C C

Clocked up above the clouds

G G C F

I m still your man for the roaming

C C F F

For as long as there s roamin allowed

G G C F

There ll be a rider and there ll be a wall

C C F F

As long as the dreamer remains

C C G C

And if it s all for nothing all the

Am F C

roadrunning s been in vain

[Chorus] (x2)
