Bm

Around the time of clambake
Movie number twenty-five
You and the lying Dutchman
Are still in overdrive
You re as strong as when you started
Mississippi in your soul
You can still be Marlon Brando

A

Bm

And the king of rock and roll

Bm

It isn t just the records
No, you must have Hollywood
The songs alone are not enough
That much is understood
You ll soon be back in Memphis
Maybe then you ll know what to do
The storylines they re giving you

When you re young and beautiful
Your dreams are all ideals

Later on it s not the same
Lord, everything is real
Sixteen hundred miles of highway
Roll back to the truth
And a song to give your mother

In your first recording booth

Bm
Around the time of clambake
That old dream s still rolling on
Sometimes there ll be the feeling
Things are going wrong
The morning star is fading
Lord, the Mississippi s cold
You can still be Marlon Brando
