Intro: D Bm G D D6 G D A D

D D6
I got shot off my horse
G
So what? I m up again
And playing in one of these
D D6
Big saloons on main
G
You can come up here
A
Take a look
D D6
Around these sinners dens
G
You re only ever going to find
A
One or two real games
G D
Nobody s driving
A G
Me underground
D A A7 A
Not yet anyway

D D6
But either on the strip
G
Or on the edge of town
Everybody pays
D
Everybody pays to play
D6 Bm
G D A

D

Yeah, you ought to stay

D6

Right where you are

G

In sawdust land

It s probably the

D D6

Safest place to be

G

A

With your greasy little pork pies

D

D6

And your shoestring hands

G

A

It makes no difference to me

G

D

All those directions

A

G

Which we never took

D

A

A7 A

To go our different ways

D

Who went and wrote

D6

G

The oldest story in the book?

Everybody pays

D

Everybody pays to play

D

Curl up inside

D6

A boxcar dream

G

And disappear

With a couple

D

D6

Low roller friends

G

You were never one

A

For trouble

D

D6

So get out of here

G

I knew the game

A

Was dangerous back then

G

D

But nobody s breezing

A

Through these swinging doors

G

Just ups and walks away

D

D6

Everybody has to leave

G

Some blood here on the floor

Everybody pays

D

D6 Bm

Everybody pays to play

G

Everybody pays
