Am

AmMaj7

Pennies from heaven

Am7

Donâ€™t make me laugh

Here all youâ€™ll get

Am6

Is the pattering rain

F

C/G

Or yon two crows up over the hill

G

Looking for winterkill

Am

Always at your boots

AmMaj7

Am7

The mud behind the byre

Am6

With its clammy hold

F

Would mock you up a grave

C/G

G

Here in the mire of a wrecked sheepfold

C/G

And all youâ€™ll bring to this

F

C/G

Is muscle and grit

F

C/G

Persistence, thatâ€™s just about it

What made you think

F

Thereâ€™d be a living in sheep?

C/E F C/E F

Eat, work, eat, work and sleep

Am

Duck under the eaves

AmMaj7

Of the bothy

Am7 Am6 F

To sit here, caged by rain

Somewhere to go conjure

C

A next move

G

When I have to think again

Am

AmMaj7 Am7

The dog lifts his gaze to plead

Am6 F

Believes the wizard has a magic stick

C

Leans his weight into my tweed

G

I give an unholy hand to lick

C

I take a swig of sheep dip

F C

From my flask

F C

And once again I ask

What made you think

F

Thereâ€™d be a living in sheep?

C F C F

Eat, work, eat, work and sleep

Am

They were at this game

AmMaj7 Am7

Two hundred years ago

Had thirty ways

Am6 F

Of dying young, poor souls

C/G

Laid to rest in their soggy rows

G

Rain on their holy books

Am

AmMaj7

Blood and whisky

Am7

On the tongue

Am6 F

And no-one watching over anyone

C

No-one left but your stubborn one

G

And the crows and rooks

C

F

C

Ah, the dying young

F

C/G

Well Iâ€™m not done

F

You watch me and Iâ€™ll watch thee

C

I can still work for two men

F

C

And drink for three

And I raise my flask

F

C/G

To the clearing skies

To you, sweepers

F

C/G

You carrion spies

F

C/G

To scavenge and survive

F

If you can do it so can I
