

Museum

Mark Lanegan

I submit this tab, because the other one isn't right. Some chords sounds better if you ring the two last strings (B and e)...
Instead of a F# played like this (244322) play it like this (244300), B (x24400) etc...

Museum - Mark Lanegan

You hear them call your name

E

From your room

E

Far removed

E

Don't let 'em use you in, every way

E

Stay unchained

F#

Around and round you go

A

E

They'll never know, what you've seen

E

Why have you turned away

E

You can believe, believe in me

E

Couldn't you try one time

E

See if they'll run, for a while

F#

It's a solitary star

A

Shining precious light

E

Light on me

D

A

When I see your eyes

C

G

Tell me what you find

F

But I oughtta know, by now

E

Did you hear them call your name

E

From your room

E

Far removed

E

I d only use you in, every way

E

Stay unchained

F#

It s a solitary star

A

Shining precious light

E

Light on me

That s it. I m pretty sure that s accurate. Strum upside down (I don t know how to say it) sometimes...
