Dm7 Bb
It s so hard to find you

I m standing right behind you
Fm7 Am
The streets are much colder
Am7 Dm7
This mean I m getting older

Dm7 Bb
Why would you? How could I?
Am Gm7
These questions lead to goodbye
Fm7 Am
But now I got my freedom
Am7 Dm7
Don t I?

F Bbm
I parked my car outside your house
C7
Hope that someday you ll come home
F Bbm
Seems the woman that I love
C7
Is someone that I hardly know
F
And after all this time
Bbm C7
I finally found a way to be alone
F Bbm C7 F
I m terrified to think that I may be losing my mind

*Its keep going the same*

Shy girl, so humble
With eyes that make me stumble
Somehow not speaking lets me know everything
I go out, You eat in
Hot from the situation
You re naked in daylight
Wrap yourself up and goodnight

I m burning, I m hungry

Angry cuz she don t love me
You got me completely
In my own game you beat me

I parked my car outside your house
Hope that someday you ll come home
Seems the woman that I love
Is someone that I hardly know
And after all this time
I finally found a way to be alone
I m terrified I think that I may be losing my mind

F
I will be back again
Dm
No this is not the end
Am F
I ve fallen hard this time but I not giving in
F Dm Dm/C
I want the world to know that I won t let you forget
Am
The tears that you shed
F
I ll make it impossible to let go

I parked my car outside your house
Hope that someday you ll come home
Seems the woman that I love
Is someone that I hardly know
And after all this time
I finally found a way to be alone
I m terrified to think that I may be losing my mind

I parked my car outside your house
Hope that someday you ll come home
Seems the woman that I love
Is someone that I hardly know
And after all this time
I finally found a place to be alone
I m terrified to think that I may be losing my mind
