I m standing right behind you
Fm7
The streets are much colder
Am7
             Dm7
This mean I m getting older
             Bb
Dm7
Why would you? How could I?
                Gm7
These questions lead to goodbye
               Am
But now I got my freedom
Am7 Dm7
Don t I?
                         Bbm
I parked my car outside your house
           C7
Hope that someday you ll come home
                       Bbm
Seems the woman that I love
Is someone that I hardly know
And after all this time
                   C7
I finally found a way to be alone
                       Bbm
                                       C7
I m terrified to think that I may be losing my mind
Its keep going the same
Shy girl, so humble
With eyes that make me stumble
Somehow not speaking lets me know everything
I go out, You eat in
Hot from the situation
You re naked in daylight
```

I m burning, I m hungry

Wrap yourself up and goodnight

Angry cuz she don t love me You got me completely In my own game you beat me

I parked my car outside your house
Hope that someday you ll come home
Seems the woman that I love
Is someone that I hardly know
And after all this time
I finally found a way to be alone
I m terrified I think that I may be losing my mind

F

F Dm Dm/C

I ll make it impossible to let go

I parked my car outside your house
Hope that someday you ll come home
Seems the woman that I love
Is someone that I hardly know
And after all this time
I finally found a way to be alone
I m terrified to think that I may be losing my mind

I parked my car outside your house
Hope that someday you ll come home
Seems the woman that I love
Is someone that I hardly know
And after all this time
I finally found a place to be alone
I m terrified to think that I may be losing my mind
