

Sad
Maroon 5

Intro: E F#m C#m

E F#m C#m

Man, it s been a long day

E F#m C#m

Stuck thinking bout it driving on the freeway

E F#m C#m

Wondering if I really tried everything I could

E F#m C#m

Not knowing if I should try a little harder

E F#m

Oh, but i m scared tell

C#m

A

That there may not be another one like this

E F#m

C#m

A

And I confess that i m only holding on by a thin thin threat

E

B

And i m kicking the curb cause you never heard

A

The words that you needed so bad

E

B

A

And i m kicking the dirt cause I never gave you the place that you needed to held

E F#m C#m

E F#m C#m

I m so sad, saaad

E F#m C#m

Man, it s been a long night

E F#m C#m

Just sitting here, trying not to look back

E F#m C#m

Still looking at the road we never drove on

E F#m C#m

And wondering if the one I chose was the right one

E F#m

Oh, but i m scared tell

C#m

A

That there may not be another one like this

E F#m

C#m

A

And I confess that i m only holding on by a thin thin threat

E

B

And i m kicking the curb cause you never heard

A

The words that you needed so bad

E

B

A

And i m kicking the dirt cause I never gave you the place that you needed to held

E F#m C#m E F#m C#m
I m so sad, saaad

E F#m C#m E F#m C#m
I m so sad, so saaad

E F#m
Oh, but i m scared tell

C#m A
That there may not be another one like this

E F#m C#m A
And I confess that i m only holding on by a thin thin threat

E B
And i m kicking the curb cause you never heard

A
The words that you needed so bad

E B A
And i m kicking the dirt cause I never gave you the place that you needed to held

E B
And i m kicking the curb cause you never heard

A
The words that you needed so bad

E F#m C#m E F#m C#m
I m so sad, so saaad