

Far Away
Martha Wainwright

tuning is 1/2 up (between an E and a F)

(Em)
Far away

(G) In some lovely way I hear your call C

Whatever happened to them all? G C

Whatever happened to us all? G Em

I know that we ve never met before G Em C

But that was then, and now I need you more G C

Is someone here keeping the score? G G/B Am

Is there only dying at your door? D

Taking me down off this cross Em

Lay me down, down, down in the dust G Em C

Whoa, love, take my hand across the crowd G C

I have been digging underground G G/B Am

What er remains is yet to be found D

I have no children Am

I have no husband D

I have no reason

To be alive C

Oh, give me one

Green grass blades are all on fire G C

I own the crack that s in the wind Am

From your window I see bars & the birds D

They sing & they sing & they sing

And the dogs

They bark & they bark & they bark & they bark

Whatever happened to them all?

Whatever happened to us all?

Annie had two young baby boys

And Jimi went crazy, crazy, crazy, late last fall
