Title: Honkytonk Man
Artist: Marty Robbins
Album: Honkytonk Man Soundtrack

C Em
Well I ve never seen you look quite so sad
F C
And I ve never felt me feel quite so bad
F C E7 Am
And I know we both feel that we had been had
D7 G7
Well I guess they were just not that strong

F C E7 Am
I lost my woman and you lost your man
F Em
And who knows who s right or who s wrong
F C E7 Am
But I ve got my guitar and I ve got a plan
F C G7 C
Throw your arms round this honkytonk man

F C
Throw your arms round this honkytonk man
F G7
And we ll get through this night the best way we can
F C Em Am
It s the best old pain killer since hurtin began
C G7 C
Throw your arms round this honkytonk man

Em
I miss that woman and you miss him too
F C
There s not a hell of a lot we can do
F C E7 Am
But cling to each other till the hurtin is through
D7 G7
But the hurt can only last just so long

F C E7 Am
You be my woman and I ll be your man
F Em

Even if just for a while

F C E7 Am
I ve still got my guitar and I ve got a plan
F C G7 C
Throw your arms round this honkytonk man

F C
Throw your arms round this honkytonk man

F G7
And we ll get through this night the best way we can

F C Em Am
It s the best old pain killer since hurtin began

C G7 C
Throw your arms round this honkytonk man

C G7 C
Throw your arms round this honkytonk man
