Title: Honkytonk Man
Artist: Marty Robbins
Album: Honkytonk Man Soundtrack

D F#m
Well I ve never seen you look quite so sad
G D
And I ve never felt me feel quite so bad
G D F#7 Bm
And I know we both feel that we had been had
E7 A7
Well I guess they were just not that strong

G D F#7 Bm
I lost my woman and you lost your man
G F#m
And who knows who s right or who s wrong
G D F#7 Bm
But I ve got my guitar and I ve got a plan
G D A7 D
Throw your arms round this honkytonk man

G D
Throw your arms round this honkytonk man
G A7
And we ll get through this night the best way we can
G D F#m Bm
It s the best old pain killer since hurtin began
D A7 D
Throw your arms round this honkytonk man

F#m
I miss that woman and you miss him too
G D
There s not a hell of a lot we can do
G D F#7 Bm
But cling to each other till the hurtin is through
E7 A7
But the hurt can only last just so long

G D F#7 Bm
You be my woman and I ll be your man
G F#m

Even if just for a while

G D F#7 Bm
I ve still got my guitar and I ve got a plan
G D A7 D
Throw your arms round this honkytonk man

G D
Throw your arms round this honkytonk man

G A7
And we ll get through this night the best way we can

G D F#m Bm
It s the best old pain killer since hurtin began

D A7 D
Throw your arms round this honkytonk man

D A7 D
Throw your arms round this honkytonk man
