Country Boy Rock And Roll Marty Stuart

Song: Country Boy Rock & Roll Artist: Marty Stuart (& His Fabulous Superlatives) - Duet with Kenny Vaughan Album: Ghost Train: The Studio B Sessions Words and music by: Don Reno Tuning: Standard Capo: No capo You can tell I m from the country, see I m from outta town I m beginnin to catch on, I m a let my hair down I ve been a-rockin , I ve been a-rollin Α Some folks think I look foolish, let em make a fool outta me Solo I work in fields of cotton, I work in fields of corn But I ain t seen nothin like it since the day I was born I ve been a-rockin , I ve been a-rollin Some folks think I look foolish, let em make a fool outta me Solo I walked in a crowded dance hall, I didn t know a soul Some hillbilly s started pickin , everybody rock n roll G I ve been a-rockin , I ve been a-rollin Some folks think I look foolish, let em make a fool outta me Solo Well I spent all my money, corn and cotton I have sold I have left the old farm, stay in town and rock and roll

D

Α

I ve been a-rockin , I ve been a-rollin

Some folks think I look foolish, let em make a fool outta me

 ${\bf A}$ ${\bf G}$ ${\bf A}$ ${\bf D}$ Some folks think I look foolish, let $% {\bf A}$ em make a fool outta me