

Ill Be Doggone
Marvin Gaye

[Intro]

A A

[Verse]

A
Well, I ll be doggone if I wouldn t work all day, baby
A
And I ll be doggone if I wouldn t bring you my pay, baby
 A D
But if I ever caught you runnin around
F#m B E
Blowin my money all over this town
 A
Then I wouldn t be doggone, I d be long gone
 A
Then I wouldn t be doggone, I d be long gone

A A

[Verse]

A
I ll be doggone if you ain t a pretty thing, baby
A
I ll be doggone if you ain t warm as a breath of spring, baby
A D
If we live to be a hundred years old
 F#m B E
If you ever let that spring turn cold
 A
Then I wouldn t be doggone, hey hey, I d be long gone (I d be long gone)
 A
Oh, I wouldn t be doggone, baby, I d be long gone (I d be long gone)

A
Oh now what I say
A
Believe me

[Bridge]

F#m B F#m B
Well, every woman should try to be
 F#m B F#m B
Whatever her man wants her to be
 B7
I don t want much, all I ask of you
 E
Is for you to be true to me

[Verse/Outro]

A

I ll be doggone if love ain t a man s best friend, baby

A

I ll be doggone if you ain t on the lovin end, baby

E

I know you make me feel like nobody could

F#m

E

But if I ever found out that you re no good

A

Then I wouldn t be doggone, baby, I d be long gone (I d be long gone)

A

Whoa, I wouldn t be doggone, I d be long gone (I d be long gone)

A

Whoa, I wouldn t be doggone

(Fade)
