

Ill Be Doggone
Marvin Gaye

[Intro]

Bb Bb

[Verse]

Bb

Well, I ll be doggone if I wouldn t work all day, baby

Bb

And I ll be doggone if I wouldn t bring you my pay, baby

Bb

Eb

But if I ever caught you runnin around

Gm

C

F

Blowin my money all over this town

Bb

Then I wouldn t be doggone, I d be long gone

Bb

Then I wouldn t be doggone, I d be long gone

Bb Bb

[Verse]

Bb

I ll be doggone if you ain t a pretty thing, baby

Bb

I ll be doggone if you ain t warm as a breath of spring, baby

Bb

Eb

If we live to be a hundred years old

Gm

C

F

If you ever let that spring turn cold

Bb

Then I wouldn t be doggone, hey hey, I d be long gone (I d be long gone)

Bb

Oh, I wouldn t be doggone, baby, I d be long gone (I d be long gone)

Bb

Oh now what I say

Bb

Believe me

[Bridge]

Gm

C

Gm

C

Well, every woman should try to be

Gm

C

Gm

C

Whatever her man wants her to be

C7

I don t want much, all I ask of you

F

Is for you to be true to me

[Verse/Outro]

Bb

I ll be doggone if love ain t a man s best friend, baby

Bb

I ll be doggone if you ain t on the lovin end, baby

Bb

F

I know you make me feel like nobody could

Gm

C

F

But if I ever found out that you re no good

Bb

Then I wouldn t be doggone, baby, I d be long gone (I d be long gone)

Bb

Whoa, I wouldn t be doggone, I d be long gone (I d be long gone)

Bb

Whoa, I wouldn t be doggone

(Fade)