

Ill Be Doggone
Marvin Gaye

[Intro]

G G

[Verse]

G
Well, I ll be doggone if I wouldn t work all day, baby

G
And I ll be doggone if I wouldn t bring you my pay, baby

G C
But if I ever caught you runnin around

Em A D
Blowin my money all over this town

G
Then I wouldn t be doggone, I d be long gone

G
Then I wouldn t be doggone, I d be long gone

G G

[Verse]

G
I ll be doggone if you ain t a pretty thing, baby

G
I ll be doggone if you ain t warm as a breath of spring, baby

G C
If we live to be a hundred years old

Em A D
If you ever let that spring turn cold

G
Then I wouldn t be doggone, hey hey, I d be long gone (I d be long gone)

G
Oh, I wouldn t be doggone, baby, I d be long gone (I d be long gone)

G
Oh now what I say

G
Believe me

[Bridge]

Em A Em A
Well, every woman should try to be

Em A Em A
Whatever her man wants her to be

A7
I don t want much, all I ask of you

D
Is for you to be true to me

[Verse/Outro]

G

I ll be doggone if love ain t a man s best friend, baby

G

I ll be doggone if you ain t on the lovin end, baby

G

D

I know you make me feel like nobody could

Em

D

But if I ever found out that you re no good

G

Then I wouldn t be doggone, baby, I d be long gone (I d be long gone)

G

Whoa, I wouldn t be doggone, I d be long gone (I d be long gone)

G

Whoa, I wouldn t be doggone

(Fade)
