

Ill Be Doggone
Marvin Gaye

[Intro]

G# G#

[Verse]

G#

Well, I ll be doggone if I wouldn t work all day, baby

G#

And I ll be doggone if I wouldn t bring you my pay, baby

G#

C#

But if I ever caught you runnin around

Fm

Bb

Eb

Blowin my money all over this town

G#

Then I wouldn t be doggone, I d be long gone

G#

Then I wouldn t be doggone, I d be long gone

G# G#

[Verse]

G#

I ll be doggone if you ain t a pretty thing, baby

G#

I ll be doggone if you ain t warm as a breath of spring, baby

G#

C#

If we live to be a hundred years old

Fm

Bb

Eb

If you ever let that spring turn cold

G#

Then I wouldn t be doggone, hey hey, I d be long gone (I d be long gone)

G#

Oh, I wouldn t be doggone, baby, I d be long gone (I d be long gone)

G#

Oh now what I say

G#

Believe me

[Bridge]

Fm

Bb

Fm

Bb

Well, every woman should try to be

Fm

Bb

Fm

Bb

Whatever her man wants her to be

Bb7

I don t want much, all I ask of you

Eb

Is for you to be true to me

[Verse/Outro]

G#

I ll be doggone if love ain t a man s best friend, baby

G#

I ll be doggone if you ain t on the lovin end, baby

G#

Eb

I know you make me feel like nobody could

Fm

Bb

Eb

But if I ever found out that you re no good

G#

Then I wouldn t be doggone, baby, I d be long gone (I d be long gone)

G#

Whoa, I wouldn t be doggone, I d be long gone (I d be long gone)

G#

Whoa, I wouldn t be doggone

(Fade)