

Ill Be Doggone
Marvin Gaye

[Intro]

B B

[Verse]

B
Well, I ll be doggone if I wouldn t work all day, baby

B
And I ll be doggone if I wouldn t bring you my pay, baby

B E
But if I ever caught you runnin around

G#m C# F#
Blowin my money all over this town

B
Then I wouldn t be doggone, I d be long gone

B
Then I wouldn t be doggone, I d be long gone

B B

[Verse]

B
I ll be doggone if you ain t a pretty thing, baby

B
I ll be doggone if you ain t warm as a breath of spring, baby

B E
If we live to be a hundred years old

G#m C# F#
If you ever let that spring turn cold

B
Then I wouldn t be doggone, hey hey, I d be long gone (I d be long gone)

B
Oh, I wouldn t be doggone, baby, I d be long gone (I d be long gone)

B
Oh now what I say

B
Believe me

[Bridge]

G#m C# G#m C#
Well, every woman should try to be

G#m C# G#m C#
Whatever her man wants her to be

C#7
I don t want much, all I ask of you

F#
Is for you to be true to me

[Verse/Outro]

B

I ll be doggone if love ain t a man s best friend, baby

B

I ll be doggone if you ain t on the lovin end, baby

B

F#

I know you make me feel like nobody could

G#m

C#

F#

But if I ever found out that you re no good

B

Then I wouldn t be doggone, baby, I d be long gone (I d be long gone)

B

Whoa, I wouldn t be doggone, I d be long gone (I d be long gone)

B

Whoa, I wouldn t be doggone

(Fade)
