

Black Is The Colour
Mary Black

This is my 1st tab! Sorry if theres any typo s! Theres a key change in the last verse, which I think suits it verry well!! cappo on 1st fret.

Amin C G Amin
Black is the colour of my true loves hair

C F G Emin
Her lips are like some roses fair

F G Emin
She s the sweetest smile and the gentlest hands

Amin C G Amin
And I love the ground where on she stands.

Amin C G Amin
I love my love and well she knows

C F G Amin
I love the ground where on she goes

C F G Emin
I wish the day it soon would come

Amin C G Amin
when she and I could be as one.

(KEY CHANGE IN LAST VERSE, OPTIONAL)

D G A D
I go to the clyde and I mourn and weep

G A D
for satisfied I neer can be

G A D G A
I write her a letter, just a few short lines and suffer death

D
a thousand times.