[Intro]

G C G C G

[Verse]

C G
Late glow on an early winter evening in Dockland
C G
With my ship of dreams moving easily across the sound
F C G
Reminiscence is weighing me down with a vengeance
F G
Tide water so deep I think I m going to drown

[Chorus]

C D7 G
But in the wink of an eye I am rising above the affliction
C D7 G
In the wink of an eye I am come back in from the cold
C D7 G
I don t even have to try and I m gone out of here without notice
F C G
Gone out of Dockland without a care in the world

[Verse]

C G
It didn t hit me when I met you coming out of the shambles
C G
It didn t hit me when you took me to the summer field
F C G
I didn t flinch when you told me that you d get what you wanted
F G
I never had what it takes to have a heart of steel

[Chorus]

C D7 G
But in the wink of an eye I am rising above the affliction
C D7 G
In the wink of an eye I am come back in from the cold
C D7 G
I don t even have to try and I m gone out of here without notice
F C
I m gone out of Dockland without a care in the world

Laid low by the act of the going
