

Dockland
Mary Black

[Intro]

G C G C G

[Verse]

Late glow on an early winter evening in Dockland
With my ship of dreams moving easily across the sound
Reminiscence is weighing me down with a vengeance
Tide water so deep I think I m going to drown

[Chorus]

But in the wink of an eye I am rising above the affliction
In the wink of an eye I am come back in from the cold
I don t even have to try and I m gone out of here without notice
Gone out of Dockland without a care in the world

[Verse]

It didn t hit me when I met you coming out of the shambles
It didn t hit me when you took me to the summer field
I didn t flinch when you told me that you d get what you wanted
I never had what it takes to have a heart of steel

[Chorus]

But in the wink of an eye I am rising above the affliction
In the wink of an eye I am come back in from the cold
I don t even have to try and I m gone out of here without notice
I m gone out of Dockland without a care in the world
Gone out of Dockland

[Bridge]

C G C D

Yes, I loved you the time that it was
C G F D G
And yes, you may rip me whenever you want___

[Verse]

So it goes on a crystal-clear morning in Dockland
C G
And heaven knows if I ll ever live to love again
C G
Struck down by the kiss of an angel in limbo
F C G
Laid low by the act of the going

[Chorus]

But in the wink of an eye I am rising above the affliction
C D7 G
In the wink of an eye I am come back in from the cold
C D7 G
I don t even have to try and I m gone out of here without notice
F C
Gone out of Dockland without a care in the world
F C G C G
I m gone out of Dockland without a care in world
