[Verse]

She roots out her best earrings with a comb
The ones that go with her rowdy red hair
Weaves her way between the plastic and the bones
Leaves all her empty evenings hanging in the air

[Chorus]

And he don t mind that she s a short-tempered girl
He don t mind that she may soon say goodbye
He don t mind cause she s got something he loves
She s as straight as a die

[Verse]

She sees the men out changing the state
Knows they stoop, though her eyes are half-drowned
Hear the steeple say, it s a quarter past eight
Moves on in a hurry, well, she s a long way from town

[Chorus]

And he don t mind that she s a short-tempered girl
He don t mind that she may soon make him cry
He don t mind cause she s got something he loves
She s as straight as a die
Straight as a die
