A LONG TIME AGO (Mary Karlzen & Mark Scandariato)

[The G6 is probably played as plain G a lot of the time, but in the intro, it s clearly G6 (320030), so I ll assume that Mary plays it that way through the whole song.]

C C D D G6 G6 G6 G6

[intro; acoustic guitar]

C C D D G6 G6 G6 G6

[intro; whole band]

C C D D G6 G6 G6 G6
You crossed my mind again today, I was out to get the mail
C C D D G6 G6 G6 G6
And I wondered if you think of me when you re riding the rails
C C D D G6 G6 G6 G6
And I wondered if you cared at all, sometimes I don t know
C C D D G6 G6 G6 G6
And I was hoping you could write to me, from a long time ago

C C D D G6 G6 G6 G6
I had that dream again last night, we were back in Chicago
C C D D G6 G6 G6 G6
We were riding round and talking bout things you said I oughta know
C C D D G6 G6 G6 G6
And you told me how our life would be, and I m learning that it s so
C C D D G6 G6 - G6/F#
And I was hoping you could call me up at a long time ago

Em Em D D C C G G - G/F#
And I think about that summer night when you said you d always care
Em Em D D C C D
And I think about this lonely life when your words turn cold in the air
D G6 G6 G6 G6
And now the winter s almost here

C C D D G6 G6 G6 G6

[guitar solo]

C C D D G6 G6 G6 G6

[guitar solo]

C C D D G6 G6 G6 G6
And you know that I would write a book, but the story s seldom told

 C C D D G6 G6 G6 G6
Of a fool who d go and walk the bridge back to a long time ago

 C C D D G6 G6 G6 G6
So here I m stuck in Santa Fe in a trailer by the road

 C C D D G6 G6 G6 G6
With only dreams of yesterday and a long time ago

 C C D [hold]
I have only dreams of yesterday and a long time ago
