ST. JAMES HOTEL (Mary Karlzen)

[Actually in F#; capo 4.]
[The A s that follow the G(9) s have some Asus9 s mixed in with them;
listen to the recording to figure it out exactly.]

D G(9) A A
At the St. James Hotel outside of Mexico
D G(9) A A
They say that a gunslinger named Wright died there a long time ago
Em A D G
In a poker game one afternoon, he was called out of the room
 Em Em A
And the cards he held, well they fell to the floor
 A
And he don t play cards no more

D G(9) A A
At the St. James Hotel outside of Mexico
D G(9) A A
They say that Frank and Jesse stayed there a long time ago, and they
Em A D G
Rode into town like two strangers, and no one questioned who they were
Em Em A A
They needed a night to sleep it off

Em A D G (Em)
I was all alone in the upstairs hall when from behind I heard him call
Em Em A A (D)
You must never never sell the St. James Hotel

D G(9) A A

Well I bought this hotel about a year ago

D G(9) A A (Em)

It was all broken down, and no one ever told of all the ghosts

Em A D G

That still walk the halls, I can hear em shooting up the walls

Em Em A A

And I know I will never sell the St. James Hotel

D G(9) A A

The St. James Hotel outside of Mexico

D G(9) A A

The St. James Hotel outside of Mexico, ohhhh

D G(9) A A

The St. James Hotel outside of Mexico, ohhhh

D G(9) A A

The St. James Hotel outside of Mexico

[repeat D G(9) A A several times]
