

Bye Bye Baby
Mary Wells

Bye Bye Baby - Mary Wells. 1960. One of her first and best. Rick in Macon

(no chords) C Am

Well, you know you took my heart
C Am

And you broke it apart
C Am

Why did our love baby, yeah yeah
C Am

Have to ever start

G F

You know you took my love, threw it away
G F

You gonna want, my love someday
C

Well a bye bye baby
G7

(bye bye bye)

C Am

Well I thought your love
C Am

Was oh so true

C Am

And you lured me baby, yeah
C Am

Started loving you

G F

You know you took my love, threw it away
G F

You gonna want, my love someday
C

Well a bye bye baby
C7

(bye bye bye)

F

Well, your love was

Sweeter than

C C7

Any I know

F

So don't come back

F

Running

G

Knockin on my front door

C Am

Well you said that I

C Am

Was your only girl

C Am

And there was no others, yeah

C Am

In this whole wide world

G F

You know you took my love, threw it away

G F

You gonna want, my love someday

C Am

Well a bye bye baby

C Am

bye bye baby (fade)
