

The Fisherman
Mason Jennings

G C Am D
Early morning, teacher talking
G C Am D
To five thousand by the lake
G C Am D
All day long ~til his disciples
G C Am D
Told him ~master, it~s getting late~.

Em Am
How you gonna feed them?
Em Am
How you gonna keep them?
Em Am
What~cha gonna give when there~s
C D
nothing to give?~.

G C
He said, I am the fisherman,
Am D
I fish for hearts of men
G C
And if you come to me
Am D
You ll find everlasting peace
G C
I see no difference
Am D
All are one as god s children
G C Am D
I am the fisherman

G C Am D
Early morning, millions waking
G C Am D
In the cities of the earth
G C Am D
I wake with a worried feeling
G C Am D
So much fighting, what s it worth?

Em Am
How m I gonna love them?
Em Am
How m I gonna trust them?
Em Am

How m I gonna live in this

C D

world as one?

G

C

He said, I am the fisherman,

Am D

I fish for hearts of men

G C

And if you come to me

Am D

You ll find everlasting peace

G C

I see no difference

Am D

All are one as god s children

G C Am D

I am the fisherman

G C Am D

Sunday morning, I am waking

G C Am D

From the prison of my birth

G C Am D

I wake with a joyful feeling

G C Am D

I am learning what it s worth

Em Am

Learning to change things

Em Am

By changing our heart

Em Am

Learning that love is the

C D

Place to start

G C

I am the fisherman,

Am D

I fish for hearts of men

G C

And if you come to me

Am D

You ll find everlasting peace

G C

I see no difference

Am D

All are one as god s children

G C

I am the fisherman

Am D

I am the fisherman

G C Am D
I am the fisherman