                                                            G
My truck is stuck in the middle of nowhere,
I left my babe alone in town.
My old friend liver,
Don t let me down.
                                                          D
Goodbye my old friend, is time to go.
                                               D
My head is empty, with alcohol.
                                               Α
I lost my babe, I need to drink.
                                                          D
So goodbye liver, please don t scream.
