Youâ€™re walkinâ€™ down this road alone
Hopinâ€™ that youâ€™ll find
A little peace of mind
A little peace of mind
Youâ€™re hopinâ€™ to find
A little peace of mind

You pack some clothes
Lock you door
Youâ€™re needing a change
It all feels the same
It all feels the same
You need a change
It all feels the same

You set your sights
One east and west
And all thatâ€™s in between
Lookinâ€™ hard to see
Lookinâ€™ hard to see
Youâ€™re lookinâ€™ to see
Something in between

Itâ€™s long days and hard miles
But still you want to go
To find what you donâ€™t know
To find what you donâ€™t know
You want to go
To find what you donâ€™t know

You live your days
Through bad and good
Somethinâ€™ in between
There will always be
There will always be
There will always be somethinâ€™ in between

When youâ€™ve finally seen it all

And found what you need
Somethin'™ in between
Somethin'™ in between
You're gonna find something in between
All you'll ever need is somethin'™ in between

ENJOY!
