

Why Dream
Matt Corby

[Intro]

Bm C#m F#m E

[Verse 1]

D C#m
You re drinking, you re worn out
F#m C#m E
You re way too good at getting what you want
Bm C#m
And I long foremost to unleash you
F#m A
A world of harm, just for diamonds on your coffin
Bm C#m
And I know its wrong, but I want in
F#m A
Just to be like you, but you talked too much to listen
Bm C#m
And I want you more, and we re meant to be grown ups
F#m
And I judge you wrongly
A
Blame it on the change of heart

[Chorus]

Bm
Oh why dream at all tonight
E
If you re keeping all the fear inside
Bm
Look into the bright screen
E
That shows you all the places you dream to be
Bm
Oh just open up your eyes
E D
And celebrate how high we get to be no lies and no hate
E D
Finally you owe it to yourself

[Instrumental]

Bm C#m F#m E A

[Verse 2]

D C#m
And I race home, because I cannot wait to live with you
F#m E A
But I won t bother you, if you want out

Bm

So give it back to me way too honest

C#m

We re dividing everything among the few

F#m

A

E

And I judge you wrongly, blame it on the change of heart

[Chorus]

Bm

Oh why dream at all tonight

E

If you re keeping all the fear inside

Bm

Look into the bright screen

E

That shows you all the places you dream to be

Bm

So just open up your eyes

E

Bm

And celebrate how high we get to be no lies and no hate

E

Bm

Finally you owe it to yourself

[Instrumental]

Bm C#m F#m E

[Outro]

E

Oh oh oh

Bm

C#m

Oh why dream at all tonight

F#m

If you re keeping all the fear inside

C#m

Bm

If you re keeping all the fear inside