

The Sound Of Falling In Love
Matt Hires

Intro:

C, G, Dm, F x2

Verse:

C

Twelve o clock.

G

The lights are glowing on the sidewalk of the cars.

Dm

A river moving down the street.

F

The subways rumble underneath my feet.

C

So why oh why am I the only one

G

To see the gold inside

Dm

The only one to hear the music in the mystery,

F

The music when she looks at me.

Chorus:

C

I hear the rhythm of the midnight rain.

G

My heart is beating like a bullet train

Dm

To the melody in my blood.

C

Ohh Voices ringing in the city streets

G

Sirens turning into symphonies.

Dm

If I m dreaming don t wake me up.

F

This is the sound of falling,

The sound of falling in love.

C

A record plays,

G

My thoughts are turning into

Crashing tidal waves

Dm

That carry all the buildings out to sea.

F

It doesn't matter much to me.

C

I'm so caught inside a beautiful commotion.

G

When chords collide,

Dm

And everything is fine and

F

There's music in the mystery.

There's music when she looks at me.

Chorus:

C

I hear the rhythm of the midnight rain.

G

My heart is beating like a bullet train

Dm

To the melody in my blood.

C

Ohh Voices ringing in the city streets

G

Sirens turning into symphonies.

Dm

If I'm dreaming don't wake me up.

F

This is the sound of falling,

The sound of falling in love.
