Some parts never taught
Climbing fences, sleeping on roof tops
While so many things I see are sugar fed
Still rocks, bricks, and lead

Hands in red paint
Let s make a mark
All of these years
You ve brought me here
You ve brought me here
I thank you
All of these years
That we ve cut through

Let s make life so big
Make sure can t be missed
I ll carry all these days for months and for years
I ll listen, you ll hear

Hands in red paint
Let s make some stains

getting dark
Hands in red paint
Let s make a mark
All of these years

You ve brought me here
I thank you
All of these years
