CHASE THE LIGHT - Matt Mays

This is a new song by Matt Mays. I tabbed it from watching the video of it on his site (the only recording of this song thus far). I m 99% sure on the chords, but the lyrics are iffy in places, and the song will likely change before it is released on the next record. Into the everlasting night,

Shine your light and save my soul

Cause my angels get sullied by the demons of the night
