Am Em C
Deep in my heart and deep mind, deep in the depth of my ego

Deep in my breast, lies a treasure chest, a world that only I can know Em Am

You may criticize me, try to analyze me, put me in your little pigeon hole
I ll still hold the key to place where I am free a world that only I control

Chorus:

Deep in my heart and deep mind, deep in the depth of my ego
Deep in my breast, lies a treasure chest, a world that only I can know

I can love you dearly I can love you true
I can love you long and love you well
But I must have my own song only I can sing
My own tale that only I can tell

Chorus:

Deep in my heart and deep mind, deep in the depth of my ego
Deep in my breast, lies a treasure chest, a world that only I can know

Place me in your prison put me in your cell
Lock me up and throw away the key
I will only wander wander all around
This big world that s inside me

Chorus:

Deep in my heart and deep mind, deep in the depth of my ego
Deep in my breast, lies a treasure chest, a world that only I can know
