Am

If I could only taste your lips and this adrenaline

G

Dm

I d never leave here, never leave your bed

I forgot how good this could feel

Close my eyes, holding the steering wheel

To every single song that we heard

Driving California, sky looked like a swimming pool

Ever since you pulled me apart

Am

In darkness in that garden in Echo Park

Dreams come easy, I just disappear in you

Let s stop all this talking
