

Watching You Watch Him
Matt Nathanson

Watching You Watch Him by Matt Nathanson

Notes:

> thanks to guys who chorded before; good job, just a couple of mistaken or missing chords (particularly in chorus)

> chords in parenthesis are passing or embellishment chords, often played quickly or in passing

CAPO on 1st fret (if desired)

Intro:

G (Cadd9)

Verse:

G
I love you
Cadd9 G D (Dsus4)
From the bottom of my heart
Am Em
And that s not gonna change
C
But things look grim
C D G
When I am watching you watch him

G
I give you
Cadd9 G D (Dsus4)
The best a man can hope to give
Am Em
But I m not feeling brave
C
Chances are slim
C D G
When I am watching you watch him

Chorus:

Em C G6 (D/F#)

Oh, what is left to learn

When he would let you crash and burn

He never gives attention

But you still yearn

Where do I fit in

When I am watching you watch him

Bridge:

God only knows why I still wait around

Except I hate to see you cry

And I need you

But there are things I cannot do

Verse:

And I want you

When he s playing all his games

And it gets hard to tell whose the victim

When I am watching you watch him

Solo: (follows Verse)

G
Cadd9 G D (Dsus4)
Am Em C
C D G

Chorus:

Oh, what is left to learn

When he would let you crash and burn

He never gives attention

G6 D/F# Em

But you still yearn

C

Where do I fit in

C

D

G

When I am watching you watch him

Bridge:

C

B(7)

God only knows why I still wait around

Em

D/F#

A7

Except I hate to see you cry

C

And I need you

D7

But there are things I cannot do

Verse:

G

And I love you

Cadd9 G D (Dsus4)

Like a broken record plays

Am

Em

But I m a window pane

C

A phantom limb

C

D

G

When I am watching you watch him

C

D

Em

When I am watching you watch him

C

D

G

When I am watching you watch him

Outro:

G