6th and green is a warm place in November
When the air is cold and the leaves blow on the ground
And I don t think that I can even remember
Why it was that i came to this town

Because I just want to be lonely tonight
Just me and my maker in this cold moonlight

This is me on the eve of an ending
To what I ve known s been constant for a year
And I m so scared of this pain that I ll be sending Sometimes I just want to run away in fear

Because I just want to be lonely tonight
Just me and my maker in this cold moonlight

No, I haven t heard your voice in two weeks now
And anticipation s been wearing me thin
And I just can t help but wonderin baby if somehow
We could tear these pages out and begin again

Because I just want to be lonely tonight
Just me and my maker in this cold moonlight
I just want to be lonely tonight
With no one around to see the sight
Of me lying here

Cause this is the hardest thing I ve ever done before
I said this is the hardest thing I ve ever done before
And I don t want to be lonely
But I won t be lonely tonight
Because my maker s holding me
