Intro - Am

C   Am
Mutes they like to protest

           G
to disagree between the lines

             F
where the mass majority hide

C   Am
And on the news itâ€™s like Mardi Gras

          G
every night with their shirts off

             F
to shine your ears and eyes

Am   C
In a restaurant booth

            G
I cut my tooth

            C   Am
on pictures of our sable justice

Am   C   G   C   Am given the facts who can relax so easy on death?

F                         Am    C
Love ain’t something I remember

F                         Am     C
trust ain’t something I afford no one

F                       Am    C
lately I remember to forget

F                         Am     C
can’t get shot in the back if you don’t run

F                         Am     C
can’t get shot in the back if you don’t run

F    Am

C                      Am
My fate it lies with someone

                   G
each stranger I’m a part of

Am and them of I

C                      Am
Across continents and oceans

                   G
transplanted the Great Divide

Asus4                      C
even though the Rockies they ain’t moved none

Am            C
In an airport lounge

            G
I try and drown

Asus4                C        Am the pictures of our sable justice

Am           C             G     Asus4    C
given the facts who can relax so easy on death?

F   Am   C
Love ain't something I remember

F   Am   C
trust ain't something I afford no one

F   Am   C
lately I remember to forget

F   Am   C
can't get shot in the back if you don't run

Love ain't something I remember

trust ain't something I afford no one
