

Metal Airplanes

Matthew Good

Thought I'd include this easy chord version that indicates where the chord changes take place and so you can have the lyrics handy. Enjoy!

[Verse]

G

On a plane, somewhere over the sea

Am

Above the rain, the bottle sets me free

G

I turn to stone, fall back in my seat

Am

C

The cuts are gone but somehow I'm still bleeding

[Chorus]

Em

You know it's true

G

There's nothing I can do

Em

You know it's true

G

There's nothing I can do

Am

You know it's true

C

G

There's nothing I can do about you

[Verse 2]

G

Move to France, La Rochelle or Nice

Am

Get a house, Pretend to live in peace

G

Paint the walls, A blackout of your face

Am

C

Stalk the halls, Then move into the basement

[Chorus]

Em

You know it's true

G

There's nothing I can do

Em

You know it's true

G

There s nothing I can do

Am

Pick a fight, it s just you being right

G

Walk away, there s nothing I can say

Am

You know it s true

C

G

There s nothing I can do about you

[Bridge]

F

Am

C

G

So don t you mind the gap when you leave

F

Am

C

G

There ll be time enough to turn tail tomorrow

F

Am

C

G

Don t you mind the gap when you leave

[Verse 3]

G

Broken up like tanker on the rocks

Am

Not made of much, I m like the Cubs against the Sox

G

On a plane, somewhere over the sea

Am

C

I fall asleep convinced that I ain t breathing

[Chorus]

Em

You know it s true

G

There s nothing I can do

Em

You know it s true

G

There s nothing I can do

Am

Pick a fight, it s just you being right

G

Walk away, there s nothing I can say

Am

You know it s true

C

G

There s nothing I can do about you

[Bridge]

F

Am

C

G

So don t you mind the gap when you leave

F

Am

C

G

There ll be time enough to turn tail tomorrow

F Am C G

Don t you mind the gap when you leave

F Am C G

There ll be time enough to turn tail tomorrow

F Am C G

Don t you mind the gap when you leave
