O Theo

Matthew Perryman Jones

With nowhere to go,

C

```
Watched this gentleman play the song to see how it was played, so all credit goes to
Chris Yokel - http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=hL0fetLocb0
      x32010
Cadd4: x33010
Am: x02210
\mathbf{F}:
      133211 or xx3211
Hammer on / pull off the D string after the first strum when going from C to Cadd4 in the verses
Try not to play the high E string during the chorus
---CAPO 5th fret if you feel capable of picking out (sounds better)
C Cadd4
                 C
Under the silence of water,
      Cadd4
Into a sky full of birds
            Cadd4
Out from the land of our fathers,
I am falling on your words,
Oh...
           Cadd4 C
Dark as the night of a preacher,
       Cadd4
                   C
I made a bed out of hay
             Cadd4
                        C
They paid me a handful of money,
 Αm
             F
I gave it all away...
All away...
                               Am
And the righteous raised their stones
And the devil threw his arrow
That was longing for a home
    Dm
               F
```

```
Cadd4 C
In the half-life of the city,
C Cadd4 C
She took off all of her clothes
C Cadd4 C
I flew from the height of the mountains
 Am F
Into a valley of dry bones
All alone
                   Am
Then my heart was still unknown
I was drunk and full of sorrows
  F Am
I was longing for a home
Dm F
With nowhere to go,
Oh, Theo...
C Cadd4 C
So, I set fires of starlight,
C Cadd4 C
To burn up against the despair
               Cadd4 C
I was caught in the tangles of midnight s
Long, unanswered prayer:
Are you there?
And the light of morning grows
                Am
On a field of fallen sparrows
I was longing for a home
 Dm F
With nowhere to go,
Oh, Theo...
```

Oh, Theo...