

Sunk

Matthew Ryan

This is Matthew Ryan's Sunk from the album East Autumn Grin.

Intro: Em, C, G, C (x2)

Verse 1:

When you were tired and so unsure
Of all the things you wanted for
When your head was like a ditch
Full of junk and regret

Chorus:

I used to think
That nothing lasts
But I was wrong,
Cause some things last
Like the ache of watching you
Of letting you sink to sunk

Interlude: C, G, C

Verse 2:

When the past has crawled so high
That you've forgotten how you would try
To be the taste on my tongue
Long after you had gone

Chorus:

Em G C D

I used to think

Em G C D

That nothing lasts

Em G C D

But I was wrong,

Em G C D

Cause some things last

Em G C D

Like the ache of watching you

D C Em

Of letting you sink to sunk

Interlude: C, G, C

Outro:

Em G C D

An iron swing

Em G C D

An empty cage

Em G C D

An orange sky

Em G C D

the room s in flames

G C

I ll leave my words where you can see

D C

Should you decide you need me

Should you decide

Em

You need me