               G
Α
                                       Bm
Without a single breath of noiselessness she can t speak
                                 D
[But we ll] keep raging through the [cold rushes]
    Bm
                              G
                         Α
    So I will quiet her
    Tell her the words that she needs to hear
                        G
    I will quiet her
                                          D
    Tell her the words that she needs to hear
         And I won t be left at the battle front
                                                          D
                                                                Bm
         I ll be getting off with the one I love tonight
{same chord progression}
Kicked up a lot of dust [ . . . started off] she took it
And love will falter if your faith is lost
    But I can quiet her
```
