So you re looking for a way to set the seasons
Hoping for a chance to do it over
And even thought you say that it s all over
Even if I know you ll never know me
Bbm7/G Eb G#
I already tried to stop the clock and turn back time
It s already clear to me I shouldn t even try (Chorus1)
You are still around to hear the words as they go by
I still understand that there s a difference if I lie (Chorus2)

Chorus

Don t you have to wonder, what life has in store for
Don t you have to wonder, what life has in store for

Tomorrow you ll be, for tomorrow you ll [G#] be, For [F#] tomorrow you ll be [Am] free (Bridge / End)
