

Pure Joy

Matthew Ward

capo on 1st fret, key of C#)

C

Thought I was falling into a d-e-e-p depression
Thinking all the mystery was all gone
Like I was falling into the deep of a grand canyon

From the side of a mountain I was hanging on

F

But now Iâ€™m coming up for air

Em

I see my angel on the sand

F

Sheâ€™s running out to meet me

G7

In the waves of the of the Rio Grande

C

And itâ€™s joy, honey, pure joy ah ahah

C

Pure joy just to see you again

C

Thought my heart was in a r-u-t of recession
All the colors I had seen had faded into the black
Like I was falling fast to the bottom of the ocean

And just my luck my hands were all chained up behind my back

F

But now Iâ€™m coming up for air

Em

I see my angel on the sand

F

Sheâ€™s running out to meet me

G7

To save me again

And itâ€™s joy, honey, pure joy

C

Pure joy just to see you again

F

And itâ€™s joy, honey, pure joy

F

G7 E7

To see the sun coming down through the mist

F Em

Yeah itâ€™s joy, honey, pure joy

F G7 C

To feel the medicine of oxygen fill up my lungs again

(break)

C F Em

To feel the strength of your kiss against my lips
