

Goin Down In Flames

Maura O'Connell

[Intro]

C G C G D/F# C

[Verse]

I don t usually take chances
Most would easily agree
Something in your eyes is saying you can ease my heartache
I have a yearning inside

[Verse]

And I know you re just a stranger
If you can t, I ll understand
Cause too many times I ve lost the chance to talk to an angel
Too many to count

[Chorus]

And life s so hard
It s the little things that seem to be getting me today
And life s so hard
And I m doing what I can, not to be getting down
N.C.
And I m goin down___ in flames
Goin down___ in flames

[Verse]

And I would tell you, I am happy
If I wasn t so damn sad
And the loneliness both overwhelms and keeps me empty
That s how it s been for awhile
