Verso 1:
                                                                           D/F#
     And honestly, I have been begging for answers
That you and only you can give to me
A voice crying loud I ve been crying for days now
And as I start to run, I stop to breathe
(And I was nearly scared to death)
                                                D/F#
And I was nearly scared to death
Εm
(Why you left in paragraphs)
Why you left in paragraphs
(The words were nearly over us)
                                                           D/F#
The words were nearly over us
You stop and turn and grab your bags
Refrão 1:
And I ll be here by the ocean
Just waiting for proof that there s sunsets and silhouette dreams
D/F#
                        Em
     All my sand castles fall

D/F# G
like the ashes of cigarettes
And every waves drags me to sea
       G
I could stand here for hours
Just to ask God the question
Is everyone here make-believe?
D/F#
 With a tear in His voice
       D/F#
He said, Son, that s the question.
Does this deafening silence
mean nothing to no one but me?
(CD/F#)

C D/F#
 As hours move to minutes
And minutes take longer to break
I will be desperately awaiting
But my tongue won t fall apart
And we ve been sitting here for hours
All alone and in the dark
                    G
                         D/F#
 So let me think of to word it
 Is it too soon to say perfect ?
C
 If I could find another thirty minutes somewhere
I m sure everything would find me
All that s left is just to sing
