

Honesty

McFly

(Danny Jones & Vicky Jones)

These are not the actual right chords Because I think Danny tuned his guitar down or something. Just not the standard tuning. However, these chords are for a standard tuned guitar.

Chords needed:

- A (577655)
- D (x57775) you can do this too (557775) it s sounds good.
- E (x79997) or (079997) doesn t really matter.
- F#m (x9 11 11 10 9)
- E (022100) (end chord of the bridge)

A D

At the end you have something played a little like this:

```
E | -5--5--5---5--7--5----- |
B | -7--9--10--7--7--7----- |
G | -7--7--7---7--7--7----- |
D | -7--7--7---7--7--7----- |
A | -5--5--5---5--5--5----- |
```

He does climbs sometimes. Like from A to D, and back. He does G# (466544) for one hit, and then up to D.
