

Hypnotise Acoustic McFly

Hi, this is my take on the acoustic version of this great song from the short documentary On The Third Floor. It can be viewed at this link:

http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=fz_t27kOfv0 Hypnotise starts at 1:32.

I've attempted to combine the two guitars to help get the little nuances that make the song much nicer to listen to than just solid chords :) I hope you enjoy it!

Standard tuning, no capo.

There is also a variation on the A chord played higher up on the fretboard for the descending part in the verses. The strumming can easily be heard so I will only tab the chords to play, likewise for the intro. This riff will be denoted A*:
