Bad Attitude

A
They say you never come home boy you been driving too fast

B
When you gonna shape up How long is this gonna last

A
You may be laughin today but listen to some good advice

B
Take a look at tomorrow in a workin man s weary eyes

Bb
You gotta pick a career, go for the gold

C
Smile for the camera, do what you re told

F
Well you can take away the ladder cuz I ain t gonna climb it

D
If there s a stairway to heaven I swear I m gonna find it

B A B
Yeah there are winners and outlaws and leaders and lovers, behind every man in the news

B A B
And one thing I know is behind everyone, there s a boy who had nothing to lose

B A B
Behind every man who has somethin to say there s a boy who had nothing to prove

B A B A
Every hero was once every villain was once just a boy with a bad attitude

B A B A
Every hero was once every villain was once Just a boy with a bad attitude

A
She says you never call how come you re actin so tough

B
You either hold me so tight or you don t hold me enough

A
Don t be afraid a me angel I ain t about to clip your wings

B
Just put your feet on the ground And your arms around the real thing

Bb
You gotta love me for keeps feather the neat

C
Plan for the future gimmee your best

F
But we re never gonna have a normal family life

D

steamin up and down the speedway on the back a your bike

B A B

A
Bad attitude, you got us tearin our hair
B
Such a bad attitude Boy you just don t seem to care
A B
We try to lay down the rules But you were born to refuse
A B
What s the world gonna do with a boy like you
A
You got it bad
B
You got a bad attitude
A B
We try to lay down the rules But I was born to refuse
A B
What s the world gonna do with a man like you
A B A B A
You got it bad, you got it bad, you got it bad, you got it bad, you got it
B bad, you git it bad
You got a bad attitude
