C

When I grew up with my best friend Kenny We were close as any brothers than you ever knew

Gsus2

Bb

It was always summer and the future called We were ready for adventures and we wanted them

Am/E

Bbmaj7

C

all There was so much left to dream And so much time to make it real.

Am7

C

But I can still recall the sting of all The tears when he was gone

Dm

C

They said he crashed and burned I know I ll never learn why any boy should die so young

C

Dm

Bb

We were racing, we were soldiers of fortune We got in trouble but we sure got around

Dm

Am7

There are times I think I see him peeling out of the dark I think he s right behind me and

C

he s gaining ground

Dm
